MINDFUL AWARENESS CLUB

Teacher: Ellis Enlow

Dates: September 19 - December 12

No class October 24, November 14 & November 28

Did you know that many skilled athletes use mindfulness to improve performance?...That mindfulness could help you manage test anxiety and learn to focus better?... That mindfulness could help you learn to be less reactive and choose more wisely when you are upset? Adults often tell kids to “pay attention,” but rarely tell them how to do so. Mindfulness can help. In Mindful Awareness Club we will engage in fun activities and explore ways to utilize the tools of mindful awareness to deal with stress, pay attention to the present moment, manage our emotions, and maybe even improve performance and get along better with peers and adults. Let’s explore mindfulness together and find the ways it could be of value in your life.
